Re: Solano, Wilfredo ArielApril 30, 2025*Page 2

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Solano is alleged to have violated his conditions of supervised release by not being truthful with a probation officer on April 18, 24, and 29, 2025.

On April 18, 2025, Mr. Solano contacted this officer to report a vehicle accident involving law enforcement. During the conversation, he mentioned that his father was suffering from stage four terminal stomach cancer and expressed his desire to move to New Jersey, to help care for him. This officer informed Mr. Solano he could report to the probation office to begin the transfer request process after returning from his work trip on April 24, 2025. Mr. Solano agreed to report to the office on that date.

On April 24, 2025, Mr. Solano showed up at the probation office as instructed. During the meeting, he reiterated his father had terminal cancer and stated he could provide documentation to verify this situation in order to expedite the transfer request. He agreed to return to the probation office on Wednesday, April 30, 2025, at 2 p.m. to submit the necessary documentation for the transfer request. Mr. Solano also mentioned he would contact this officer if he was unable to report to the probation office on April 30, 2025, due to being assigned a long-haul trucking trip.

It is important to note that during this meeting, Mr. Solano did not disclose he had been terminated from his position at Portland Transport, LLC on Tuesday, April 22, 2025. On April 25, 2025, this officer contacted Mr. Solano's former employer, who confirmed he was terminated for being an insurance risk.

On April 28, 2025, this officer received a telephone call from Alfredo Solano, Sr., the father of Mr. Solano. Mr. Solano, Sr. expressed his frustration after discovering his son had been telling people, including the probation office, that he is terminally ill with cancer, which is not true. At 77 years old, Mr. Solano, Sr. stated that he is in good health. He described Mr. Solano as a habitual liar who has caused him problems throughout his life. Mr. Solano, Sr. Stated he had hoped that after spending 17 years in prison, his son would be a changed man, he found this is not the case. Additionally, Mr. Solano, Sr. mentioned his son is not approved to live with him.

On April 29, 2025, at approximately 2:18 p.m., the Montana Highway Patrol contacted this officer to report an incident involving Mr. Solano in Billings, Montana, for failing to use his turn signal. This officer asked Mr. Solano why he was in Billings. Mr. Solano responded he was on his way to pick up a trailer for work. However, this officer clarified this was not accurate, as he had been terminated from his job on April 22, 2025. This officer instructed Mr. Solano to return to the Eastern District of Washington, and report to the probation office the following day by 2 p.m. Mr. Solano acknowledged the instruction.

Additionally, the Montana State Highway Patrol officer noted Mr. Solano's car had a significant amount of personal belongings inside.
